ISION OF PROMOTION
S.
FEB 13 1924
Y ard of National Missions

7

Synod of Montana

Adopted October 5, 1916.
at Missoula

Pen-pièce

CONSTITUTION

Article I

This society shall be called the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Synod of Montana.

Article II

It shall consist of all the members of the Presbyterial societies of the Synod auxiliary to the Woman's Presbyterian Board of Missions of the Northwest and the Woman's Board of Home Missions in the U. S. of A.

Article III

The object of this society shall be to enlarge, strengthen and unify the work within the Synod for the Freedmen and for the Home and Foreign Missions.

Article IV

Section 1. The officers of this society shall be a President, Vice President, Recording Secretary, Treasurer, Secretary of Westminister Guild, Secretary of Young People's Work, Secretary of Missionary Education, Secretary of Literature and Secretary of Extension Work.

Section 2. It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all meetings and to exercise supervision over all the work of the Synodical, to visit auxiliaries if needed, to be informed of all the plans and desires of the Woman's Board of Home Missions, Freedman's Department, and Board of the Northwest, and seek to have them executed in every Presbytery.

Section 3. The Vice President shall assist the President in all her duties and preside at meetings upon request of the President or in the absence of the President and to have charge of Freedmen's Work.

Section 4. The Recording Secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings of the Society.

Section 5. The Treasurer shall have charge of all money contributed to the to the contingent fund, pay all bills audited by the President, and shall submit a report to the Executive Committee when called for and annually to the Society.

Section 6. The Secretary of Young People's Work shall aid the Presbyterial secretaries of Young People's Work by council, correspondence and visitation in prosecuting their work in their respective Presbyteries.

Section 7. The Secretary of Westminister Guild Work shall endeavor to organize circles and chapters in the Synod and in every way seek to develop a symmetrical Christian womanhood and to unite for world wide service the young women of our Church.